Woman Dates Green Thumb Saying To Her Grandfather

THIS AND THAT: We've run into some conclusive evidence regarding the Green Thumb. Many weeks ago an advertising agency—Mulloy and Somebody, I believe—dispatched the news that they had tried to trace the origin of Green Thumb and hadn't got any farther back than 1925. You know, anybody who has unusual success in growing things is said to have a "green thumb."

One of our local ladies who preferred not to be quoted told Timmo yesterday that she could date it back many, many years in Tennessee, her native state.

Her grandfather, who would be 125 years old if alive today, had a nursery and he passed the expression on to her father, who is living and is 86 years old, she said.

It was first used in connection with the grafting of trees, where a branch was grafted onto the stock. Where the grafting was done there had to be a green bud, and this green bud was called a "green thumb," she explained.

"Many times I've heard my father say, 'You can't use that—the thumb's not green,' when one of the boys started to do a grafting job when the bud was not green," she stated.

From calling a green bud a green thumb, the expression has come to mean that anybody who grows things with unusual success has a "green thumb."

KELLY BEAL, who lives at Somerset and works at the Sahara warehouse, killed a rattlesnake Monday by the side of his garden fence. The snake, a timber rattler, was four feet long. It had six rattles and a button.

Beal has lived there for five years since moving from Harrisburg and this is the second rattlesnake he has killed on his place. He shot it.

HELP HELP * John Poulos has started a collection of old money and wants some help in getting started. Just give him a call. He showed me some fractional currency, 10-cent and 25-cent bills of 1863 and a 50-cent bill of 1878.

HENRY DALLAS was showing me a couple of advertisements of the Florida National Bank of Jacksonville, and pictured in each of these ads in the Florida newspaper is his daughter, now Mrs. Edna Bruce.

She works in the bank and is their "Snorkel Teller," the one who takes care of the automobile bank deposits.

She isn't up in the window to do business with the motorist, but is seated eight feet below the service. The motorist sees her reflection on what appears to be a television screen, but the Snorkel works with electric elevator, two-way communication system and a series of mirrors. They call it "Snorkel-Visor."

ETHEL MATHIAS, city school nurse, reminds that immediately after the close of school is an ideal time for first and fifth grades of the fall school term to have their medical and dental examinations.

These exams are a must in the school program and an early visit to the physician and dentist will save crowding during the days before the opening of school.

Just file the reports away for safekeeping, until registration at the Junior high Aug. 24, 25 and 26. She also suggests it might be well to take a urine specimen to the doctor for examination in a clean bottle with a clean cork or lid. Avoid cold cream jars, she said.

Rabies Vaccinations Friday Evening

An evening rabies vaccination clinic will be held at the Humane shelter near the fairgrounds from 5 to 7:30 p. m. Friday and Humane society officials today said that following this clinic plans for others are indefinite.

Secured for Friday evening is Dr. John Shelton, Metropolitan veterinarian who will vaccinate the dogs.

Dr. W. H. Dean of Carrier Mills has been doing the society's work for the past six years but he has been ordered to cease by the state because he is a state veterinarian.

The state legislature last year passed a law requiring that all dogs not kept up be vaccinated by June 1 of this year.

Leslie M. (Jack) Jones

Jack Jones, 51, Former State Policeman, Dies

Leslie M. (Jack) Jones, 51, Ridgeway, former state highway patrolman and more recently state conservation agent in Gallatin county, died at 5 p. m. Tuesday at the Pearce hospital, Eldorado.

Death was due to heart occlusion and followed a severe illness of one week, which followed frequent heart attacks occurring over a period of months. He had been in the hospital only one day.

Mr. Jones was born and reared at Ridgeway, where his funeral and burial will take place. The body will lie in state at the T. B. Smith funeral home.

He was the son of Mrs. Flora McConnell, Ridgeway, and the late Albert Jones. A half sister, Mrs. Roy Pryor, lives at Alton.

On August 7, 1928, he and Miss Lorene Bruce of Ridgeway were married. She and their two children, Mrs. Wallie (Shirley) Shewmake, Milwaukee, Wis., and Donald Jones, who is a Junior in the University of Illinois School of Engineering, with his mother and his half sister, survive. There is also one grandchild.

Mrs. Clem Nash, Eldorado, is a sister of Mrs. Jones and Roderic Nash, Harrisburg, is a nephew.

Mr. Jones had held various public offices. He served on the Water Board at Ridgeway and was chief of police at Ridgeway before he became a state patrolman, in which capacity he served for eight and one half years.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge of Ridgeway, rites of which will be held at the funeral service.

Texas Co. Seeks Gas from Beulah
Heights Field

Reports from Eldorado today were that the Texas Co. is seeking gas from the Beulah Heights field for its Hoodville refinery south of McLeansboro and that there is sufficient gas to meet the need.

The gas, if negotiations were completed, would be piped to Hoodville, it was stated. However, one person interested in the Beulah Heights development said, the desire is still to make it an oil field instead of a gas field.

Meters have been on the Jones No. 1 and the Jones No. 2 wells and one of the workers drilling the Butler test nearby said that the gas in the Beulah Heights field was ample.

Aged Man Fatally Burned

COLP, Ill. — Joe Conn, an old-age pensioner, was burned fatally Tuesday night in a fire at the home of Edgar Dixon, 62, near William County Sheriff Ora Kirby said.

Alton Site Reported One of Top Three Considered for Air Force Academy

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — The Champaign-Urbana News-Gazette says three sites now are getting top consideration for the new Air Force academy, including one in southwestern Illinois.

The newspaper said Tuesday it had learned from a "high Pentagon source" that the Air Academy Selection Board, after surveying more than 50 proposed sites, had narrowed the field down to five states—Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, California and Michigan.

Of these five, the News-Gazette said, the "consensus views of the five-man board further reduce the list, expected to form the group's report," to these three:

1. Alton, Ill.
2. Madison, Ind.
3. Colorado, possibly either Denver or Colorado Springs.

The law which created the board makes it mandatory for Air Force Secretary Harold F. Talbott to accept its recommendation if it unanimously agrees on one location. If it can't agree on one site, however, the board must suggest three, and the choice is Talbott's.

McCarthy Group Probes CIA for Red Infiltration

Senator Reveals
Investigation of
Super-Secret Agency

WASHINGTON — Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy said today that his subcommittee is studying Communist infiltration of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The Wisconsin senator said the alleged Red infiltration of the super-secret CIA is "much more serious" than the subversion he claimed he found last fall at Ft. Monmouth, N. J.

McCarthy did not otherwise elaborate his charge against the CIA. But he said he had discussed the situation with members of his Senate investigating subcommittee along with alleged "Communist infiltration in hydrogen and atomic bomb plants."

His remarks came near the end of the morning session of public hearings on the Army-McCarthy dispute, which are in their 25th day. Roy M. Cohn was the witness.

McCarthy's was the first announcement that the CIA was being investigated, although there had been oblique hints about such an inquiry earlier in the Army-McCarthy hearings.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) had asked why alleged espionage at Ft. Monmouth's secret radar laboratories was not investigated sooner. He said he thought the delay was "pretty serious," and asked, "have we had anything this serious so far?"

McCarthy said "we have a much more serious situation right now" — Communist infiltration in the CIA.

McCarthy said he wanted all the information the subcommittee has about that, and also about the alleged subversion in H-bomb and A-bomb plants mentioned by McCarthy.

There was no answer, and the subcommittee recessed for lunch almost immediately thereafter.

Cohn, chief counsel of McCarthy's investigating subcommittee, had undergone a morning of round-robin questioning by members of the investigating subcommittee, Army special counsel Joseph N. Welch, and McCarthy.

Cohn charged that Army counsel John G. Adams had used Pvt. G. David Schine as a "paw" in attempts to have the subcommittee soft-pedal or stop its controversial investigation at Ft. Monmouth. He asserted none of the Army's charges against him were "made in good faith."

Hearing Chairman Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) asked Cohn about a reference by Adams to Schine as a "hostage." He asked whether Adams was being facetious.

Cohn conceded Adams certainly was facetious on some occasions. But many times, Cohn said, he "might have been serious." He said Adams referred to Schine as "hostage" more frequently than by name. Adams had testified he used the term only after hearing that McCarthy had used it.

Diplomas Have Not Yet Arrived for
Graduates at HTHS

Diplomas for the Harrisburg Township high school graduates have not yet arrived and the firm from which they were purchased has been unable to locate them, Principal Raymond L. Foster was informed today.

The diplomas and covers will have to be remade and probably will be two weeks before the recent graduates can get them, Mr. Foster stated. Further information on their arrival will be given later.

Mother Faces Sanity
Test for Beating,
Blinding Daughter

LOS ANGELES — A young mother charged with beating, maiming and blinding her 9-year-old daughter faces a sanity test.

Mrs. Trinidad Vera, 28-year-old mother of eight children, pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity to five counts of mayhem and assault against her daughter Celia, Tuesday.

The pain-wracked child, still hospitalized, said her mother twisted her arm until it snapped. Doctors reported that blows to the head blinded the child in one eye, broke her nose and knocked out several teeth.

Superior Judge Mildred Lillie appointed a panel of three psychiatrists to examine Mrs. Vera on her sanity and report back to the court before the scheduled trial date of July 6. Mrs. Vera was held in lieu of $5,000 bond. The child was made a ward of the court.

Tornado Warning In Illinois Area

CHICAGO — The Chicago Weather Bureau said today that a "chance of an isolated tornado" in southwestern Illinois west of a Litchfield-Pinckneyville line from noon to early evening today.

The warning said showers and thunderstorms were expected in south and central Illinois this afternoon and tonight.

"Locally severe thunderstorms are expected in southwestern Illinois this afternoon and evening with a chance of an isolated tornado west of a Litchfield-Pinckneyville line from noon to 7 p. m. CDT today," the bulletin said.

The bulletin added: "Isolated tornadoes are expected in an area along and 50 miles either side of a line from Columbia, Mo., to 30 miles east of St. Louis, Mo., from 12 noon to 4 p. m. CDT."

But the board also voted 2-1 against reinstating Oppenheimer's suspended clearance for atom secrets because of his "serious disregard" for security measures, "susceptibility to influence," "disturbing" conduct in the H-bomb program, and lack of "candor" in testimony before the board.

Ethically Indefensible

The atomic scientists of Chicago assailed the findings as "morally and ethically indefensible." Johnson, a member of the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee, attacked them for failing to make a "clear-cut decision one way or the other."

Another committee member, Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM) called them "somewhat strange."

But most other members of the committee declined to comment until the Atomic Energy Commission itself makes its final decision in the case. Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NV), committee chairman, also said he will not decide whether to investigate until the commission has acted.

Commission Must Decide

The commission must decide whether to accept or reject the board's recommendations. Oppenheimer waived an appeal to the AEC Personnel Security Review Board and requested "immediate consideration" by the full commission.

His attorney, Lloyd K. Garrison, urged quick action in a letter to the AEC because the case might be left in "confusion" if it is not decided before Oppenheimer's contract expires June 30.

Death Takes H. E.
(Elmer) Young,
Former Resident

H. E. (Elmer) Young, former resident of Harrisburg, died in a hospital in Royal Oak, Mich., this morning following a stroke.

He had been bedfast for the last six years, and most of his illness was spent in the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Nelson, 616 South Wilson street in Royal Oak.

He was born in Poplar Bluff, Mo., the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Young. He became a member of the Church of Christ in his early manhood.

Surviving are Mrs. Matilda Young, his widow, who also lives in the Nelson home; one daughter, Mrs. Eugene (Thelma) Nelson; and one son, Andrew Young, five grandchildren and one great-grandchild, all living in Royal Oak, Thelma and Andrew graduated from the Harrisburg Township high school.

Also surviving are two brothers, John Young, Ferndale, Mich., and A. J. Young, St. Louis, Mo., and three sisters, Mrs. D. O. Henson, Mrs. Carl Grobe, and Mrs. E. H. Roberts, all of Poplar Bluff, Mo. He was a brother of the late Frank Young, a furniture merchant in Harrisburg, whose widow, Mrs. Carrie Young, now lives in Harrisburg. Mrs. Harold Boatright and Mrs. William Sloan Jr., are nieces of Mr. Young.

The body is at the Kinsey funeral home in Royal Oak. The funeral will be Friday afternoon under the auspices of the Order of Odd Fellows of which Mr. Young had been a member and ardent supporter for many years.

Member of AEC Congressional Group Hits Ruling on Oppenheimer

Special Panel
Votes Against
Reinstatement

WASHINGTON (U-P) — Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) charged today that a security board recommendation to deny atom secrets to Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer was nothing but doubletalk.

The special three-man panel declared unanimously in findings published Tuesday night that the famed builder of the atom bomb is a "loyal citizen" with an "unusual ability" to keep vital secrets to himself.

But the board also voted 2-1 against reinstating Oppenheimer's suspended clearance for atom secrets because of his "serious disregard" for security measures, "susceptibility to influence," "disturbing" conduct in the H-bomb program, and lack of "candor" in testimony before the board.

Ask Increase in Pay, Larger State Police Force

SPRINGFIELD — The state police merit board has asked Gov. William G. Stratton for an increase in pay and in numbers for the state police force.

Henry A. Gardner, chairman of the three-man board, told newsmen of the requests after a conference with the governor Tuesday. Gardner said state police should receive a minimum salary of $350 per month.

Starting pay for state policemen is now $322. Gardner said the state patrolmen should receive as much as city policemen, who get from $300 to $350 minimum, depending on their city's population, under a 1953 law.

Gardner said the board also asked Stratton's support for an increase in the size of the 500-man force. He said no specific number of patrolmen was requested.

Stratton asked the board to submit figures showing the total cost of the pay increase, Gardner said.

War II Hero is Nominated in South Dakota

By United Press

Two primary elections today gave World War II hero Joe Foss the probable governorship of South Dakota and former Nevada Gov. Vail Pittman the Democratic nomination to regain the post.

In another election, Birmingham, Ala., voters decided overwhelmingly to keep complete racial segregation in schools. The Supreme Court ruling against segregation in schools was an issue in the vote.

Foss, a Marine ace who shot down 26 planes and was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor, scored a runaway victory against two opponents in Tuesday's Republican primary.

The decision probably sends Foss to the governor's chair, since a Republican nomination in South Dakota is usually tantamount to election.

Mundt Renominated

Foss, a husky, cigar-smoking rancher and state legislator, polled twice as many votes as his nearest competitor, Lt. Gov. Rex Terry. He promised he will not be tied to "any special interest" and will "let the chips fall where they may" if he beats Democratic nominee Ed C. Martin in November.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, a national figure since he assumed the chairmanship of the McCarthy-Army hearings, was re-nominated without opposition.

In Nevada Pittman gathered 11,916 votes with 75 per cent of the ballots cast to outdistance four rivals in the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

His closest rival was Archie Grant, 60-year-old Las Vegas auto dealer who won the support of most backers of Sen. Pat McCarran, state Democratic leader. Grant refused to concede defeat early today, although it was impossible for him to overtake Pittman.

Legion to Hold District Convention At Springerton Sunday

The annual convention of the 24th district of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at Springerton, on Sunday, June 6. The convention sessions will begin at 10 a. m. with a parade following the adjournment at 2:30 p. m.

Chester F. Newby, commander of the 24th district, stated that the call of the annual convention is for the purpose of transacting any and all business which may properly come before it, the presentation of committee reports, action on resolutions and election of officers.

The 24th district takes in the following counties: Clay, Edwards, Wayne, White, Hamilton, Saline, Gallatin, Hardin, Pope, Johnson and Massac. Forty posts are located in the district, representing 6800 Legionnaires.

Cairo Mayor Resigns To Accept Mississippi River Commission Post

CAIRO, Ill. — Egbert A. Smith resigned Tuesday night as mayor of Cairo following Senate approval of his appointment by President Eisenhower to the Mississippi River Commission.

The City Council elected Henry L. Yates, a gasoline and oil distributor, as mayor for the 11 months remaining in Smith's term. Yates has been a city commissioner for 19 years.

Smith had been mayor for 11 years and served as a commissioner four years before that. He also indicated he will resign as chairman of the board of the Mississippi Valley Flood Control Assn. which has headquarters in Memphis, Tenn.

Constant Action Carried On by Federal Agencies

President Says
His Legislative
Program Comes First

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower said today that his administration's "constant surveillance of Communists in this country is a 24-hour, seven-days-a-week, 52-weeks-a-year job."

"It is carried out by the appropriate federal agencies, in conformity with due process of law," Mr. Eisenhower told a news conference.

"It is being done quietly and relentlessly, and those who best know its effectiveness are the Communists themselves."

With that statement, he cut off questioning at this time about the Army-McCarthy dispute.

Tells His Achievements

Mr. Eisenhower opened the news conference by saying that there is one word particularly prominent in the newspapers these days — Communists — and the struggle against communism.

He then recited a list of nine accomplishments of his administration against Communists in the past 16 months.

It included the conviction of 41 Communist Party leaders, the indictment of 20 others, and the arrest of seven more.

He then said that the statement issued by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr., with his approval last week was his last word on anything relating to the McCarthy matter unless something comes up that would make him change his mind.

And he said that he does not know now what that can be.

Comments On Indochina

The President's comments included:

1. He said he has by no means reached a decision to ask Congress for authority to intervene in the Indochina war.

2. He said Russia has closed the door to early agreement on its atom-for-peace plan.

3. He would not comment on the failure of a special security board to clear Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer for atomic secrets while the case is still going through review.

4. He is willing to stand up for the principles in his farm law recommendations. However, he appreciates there probably must be some give and take in drafting the actual law.

5. There are many frustrations, disappointments, and inhibitions in holding the presidency. But he didn't take it with the idea that it would be a picnic of fun. At the same time, it is inspiring to see the number of people who are willing to drop their normal pursuits, often at great sacrifice, to pitch in.

Baptists Emphasize Christianity Fight With Communism

ST. LOUIS — About 25,000 "messenger" opened the scheduled portion of the Southern Baptist Convention today with the battle between Christianity and communism a dominant theme.

Dr. James W. Storer, Tulsa, Okla., was to make the president's address and Dr. Slater A. Murphy, Memphis, Tenn., was to deliver the annual convention sermon to highlight the first day's meeting.

Southern Baptist pastors and the Women's Missionary Union concluded conferences Tuesday.

A. B. Van Arsdale, pastor of Central Baptist Church, Decatur, Ala., Tuesday night told the pastors that "Baptists held aloft the torch of liberty."

"And the forces of evil will find that the harder they blow, the brighter the torch will burn," he said. "So long as there are foes of freedom, there will be fighters for freedom."

Alfred D. Moore of New York, executive secretary of the Committee of World Literacy and Christian Literature of the National Council of Churches of Christ, said the Christian way of life is "the only one that has a ghost of a chance against communism today." He told some 6,000 women "literacy is your weapon."

Senate Group Opens Drive for More REA Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — A small group of Senate Democrats sought today to boost appropriations next fiscal year for the Rural Electrification Administration and accused the administration of trying to "sabotage" REA.

As the Senate resumed debate on the billion dollar agriculture appropriations bill, Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) planned to push for his amendment to hike the REA's lending authority to rural cooperatives to 135 million dollars during the fiscal year beginning July 1.

The administration had recommended only 55 million dollars in REA lending authority but the House and the Senate Appropriations Committee boosted the figure to 100 million dollars. Douglas' amendment would raise the loan authorization to the same level as last fiscal year.

In offering his amendment, Douglas said the Eisenhower administration has cut REA appropriations by 52 million dollars since it took office. He said Congress should warn the administration that "it won't tolerate the tacit sabotage of the REA program."

The appropriations bill — the fourth regular appropriations bill to be considered by the Senate — provides $1,045,791,971 for Agriculture Department programs and loans to farmers during fiscal 1955, but does not include funds for the price support program. Congress voted $550,151,848 for price supports in a separate bill last February.

Radio, TV 'Bloopers' Played for Lions
An "Album of Bloopers" from radio and TV were played for the Harrisburg Lions club Tuesday night. Eddie Wise had charge of the program.

The tape recording, about 25 minutes playing time, was a collection of mistakes made by announcers, actors and sound effects men in the presentation of radio and TV programs over the years.

During the business session it was voted to contribute $50 to the Boy Scout fund, payable in $25 installments over a two year period. The club also voted to sponsor an advertisement in behalf of the bloodmobile visit in Harrisburg next week.

Ronnie Rauh was a guest of his father, Charles Rauh.

Social and Personal Items

P. M. Gibbons Family Reunion Memorial Day
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gibbons, 610 South Land street, Memorial Day, all of the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gibbons, excepting one daughter, held a family reunion. The absent daughter, Mrs. J. F. Hudson, is moving from Philadelphia to Chicago this week, and could not be present.

After visiting the graves of their parents at Sunset Hill, the children had a picnic lunch at the J. E. Gibbons home and spent a very enjoyable afternoon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons and son, Jerry, Detroit, Mrs. E. J. Gibbons, Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thorne and children, Janet and John Frederick, Biloxi, Miss. Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Thorne, Mt. Vernon, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hunt and son, Donald, Mt. Vernon, Miss Gladys Calvey and her mother, Mrs. Lola Calvey, Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Roper and son, Bruce, and the J. E. Gibbons family, Harrisburg.

Family Reunion Held At Herb Carnahan Home
A family reunion was held recently at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Carnahan, RFD 4.

A bountiful dinner was spread on the beautiful lawn at noon, and in the afternoon, while the youngsters, and some are not so young, played baseball, others gathered around the piano and enjoyed some old fashioned singing.

Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hendrix, Kanawakee; Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Harris and Roselyn, Evelyn and Michael, Benton; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gidecum, Patsy and Bill, Mrs. Connie Donahue, Carol and Billy, Claud Plastien, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baldwin, El Dorado; Raymond Gregg, Mrs. Vera Yates, Larry, Donna and Jo leue, all of Carrier Mills; Hazel Vaughn and Sunny Briggs, Granite City; Sammy Gregg, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Sieneck, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carnahan and Gwynell, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carnahan and Judith, Francis and Benita, Harrisburg; Miss Sue Vineyard, Equality, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carnahan.

Lebern Horrell, former local resident who has been residing at Carmi the past few years, is in a hospital at Evansville, where his condition is reported serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wiedemann are visiting in New Orleans, La., on their vacation. They have been guests of the Court of Two Sisters, the romantic rendezvous of New Orleans which was erected in 1832.

Ellen Dills Family Holds Reunion
Mrs. Ellen Dills of 1303 South Granger street, who will celebrate her 84th birthday June 9, was honored by the presence of all her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren with the exception of one granddaughter, Mrs. Dorothy Shaw and her two small sons of Pontiac, Mich., on Memorial Day.

A bountiful dinner was served at noon and the afternoon was highlighted by the taking of pictures. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Dills, Clay, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dills and daughters, Alberta and Deloris of Pontiac, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Herman McClusky, Berta Dills and Bessie Morse of Harrisburg.

Mrs. Mollie Irvin Honored With Surprise Birthday Party
Mrs. Mollie Irvin, 616 South Land, was pleasantly surprised on her 65th birthday Monday evening by the T. E. L. Sunday school class of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church, of which Mrs. Lillie Chitty is the teacher.

Following a fellowship hour refreshments were served to Mrs. Clara Cannon, Mrs. Pearl Randolph, Mrs. Lizzie Upchurch, Mrs. Amy Reynolds, Mrs. Murtha Asbridge, Mrs. Lela Raley, Mrs. Murren Thomas, Mrs. Ollie Fulkerson, Mrs. Chloe Jones, Mrs. Florence Raley, Mr. Lillie Chitty, Mrs. Carisa Gardner, Mrs. Bessie Davis and her granddaughter, Marsha Lynn Davis, and the hostess, Mrs. Irvin, who was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Doris Wallace, Sharon Mullinix Celebrate Birthdays

A wiener roast was held May 28 at Moore's Grove in Bankston in honor of the 13th birthdays of Doris Jean Wallace, daughter of Mrs. Pete Leskis, and Sharon Mullinix, daughter of Mrs. Cleo Mullinix.

Those attending were Linda Skaggs, Patricia Moore, Myrna Fotts, Roberta Steinborn, Bobby Paveonis, David Moore, Darrell Beggs, Ronnie Maynard, Lindell Ray Wallace and Benny Lane.

After gifts were opened and favors served, games were played and pictures taken of the group.

Tom Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cole, Dorris Heights, left Saturday for Indianapolis, Ind., where he has employment with Hibbens-Holweg's wholesale firm. Tom was graduated from the Harrisburg Township high school Friday evening with high scholastic honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Richardson, Chicago, and children, Michael and Cathy, visited his mother, Mrs. Mae Richardson, Bankston, from Saturday to Tuesday.

Reunion Held at Mrs. Robert Moore Home

Mrs. Robert Moore, West Sloan street, had all of her children home Sunday and her brothers, Robert, and Eugene Thompson.

A bountiful dinner of fried chicken and all the trimmings was enjoyed at noon and the afternoon was spent in visiting and making flash pictures and tape recordings.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Moore, Pontiac, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Moore and son, Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Moore and daughter, Brenda Kay, Mrs. Hazel Carlisle, Eldorado, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lamb, Fort Campbell, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Thompson, Lincoln, E. R. Thompson, Chicago, and Mrs. Moore.

Robert Thompson is spending a few days in Harrisburg and would like to meet all of his old friends.

Potluck Dinner Held At Tatal Cook Home

A potluck dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tatal Cook, Dorris Heights, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Peak and granddaughter, Cynthia Montgomery, all of Pontiac, Mich., who spent the week end at the Cook home.

Dinner was served on the lawn to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Conover and children, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vannoy, Rev. Ruth Martin, Mrs. Bernice Wolfe and daughter, Mrs. Wilma Ashe and daughter, Miss Linda Duncan, Miss Carol Beal, Mrs. Julia Valdivia, John Wiley, Harry Charles Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Peak and granddaughter and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Cook and daughter, Judith.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Harrisburg RFD 4, had the following visitors during the past week: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Solars, Greve Coeur; Mr. and Mrs. Finis Stevens and Elsie Joyce Sadler, Bartonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Lindsay and children, Pontiac, Mich.; and Mrs. Ruth Gates, Harrisburg.

Mrs. W. M. Lippiatt had as guests over the holidays her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lippiatt and two daughters, Laura and Linda, Columbus, Ind.; her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Jackson and son, Richard, and Mr. Jackson's mother, Mrs. Effie Jackson, all of Rantoul.

James A. Blackman, Lakeland, Fla. is seriously ill in the Morrell hospital in that city. Mr. Blackman spends the summer months in Harrisburg staying recently at Commercial hotel. Robert Blackman, 1117 South Washington, is his nephew.

Mrs. Carrie Young left today for Royal Oak, Mich., to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, H. E. Young, which will be held Friday afternoon. She will visit in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rabern Young, in Birmingham, Mich., before returning home.

A-1 John Phillip Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cole, spent the week end in Harrisburg. He is stationed at Sedalia Air Force Base in Sedalia, Mo.

Wiley Dorris and Paul Clark, Chicago, visited their aunt, Mrs. Ted Brannock, over the week end.

Calendar of Meetings

Homecoming service will be held at Stude Missionary Baptist church, six miles north of Crab Orchard Sunday, June 6. Ada Abney and her singers will furnish the music. Rev. Jess Clarida is pastor.

The Little Egypt Stamp and Coin club invites anyone who is interested in these collections to meet at the Eldorado funeral home Thursday at 7 p. m.

There will be an initiation ceremony of Egyptian Shrine No. 56, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Masonic temple. All members are invited.

Notice, Knights Templar. Annual election and installation of officers of Harrisburg Commandery No. 89 will be at 7:30 tonight.

Regular Attendance Stressed in Talk At Kiwanis Club

The importance of regular attendance to be a good Kiwanian was emphasized to members last night at the Masonic temple by Gil Pewitt, a visiting Kiwanian from the Burbank club in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. Pewitt, who was a guest of his uncle, Dean Hill, has visited 49 Kiwanis clubs from Ontario, Canada, to clubs in Florida and Georgia, so far this year. "A club cannot realize the full value of a member unless he is in regular attendance, and a member cannot get full value from the club without regular attendance," Mr. Pewitt stated.

John L. Schork, president, announced the club would attend a meeting of the Carbondale club in a body next Tuesday evening and deliver the traveling plaque to that club. The traveling plaque is used among the clubs in Division 18, to stimulate interclub meetings. The meeting at Carbondale will begin at 6:20 and local Kiwanians will leave in a group from the Masonic temple at 5:15.

Floyd Smith of Butram, Mo., was a guest of Vern Clayton at last night's meeting.

Continuous Fight On Reds: Eisenhower

in to help get the job done. Can Ride Coat-Tails
6. Any political candidate who supports his program and wants to ride on his coat-tails can climb right on.

7. He does not feel Republicans have let him down in Congress but he knows that the GOP, like every other organization, has individuals and splinters which do not go along with the majority.

8. It was wrong to bring the States' Rights issue into the recent Senate debate on his proposal to reduce the voting age to 18.

9. He declined to comment on a charge by Harvard economist Summer Slichter that the administration has shown a lack of initiative in keeping the economy strong.

10. Fair play in congressional hearings: The legislators have a deep responsibility in this matter and he wouldn't want to enter the field of recommendations without perhaps consulting legislative leaders of both parties.

In Accordance With Law
The President said the Brownell statement was prepared at his (the president's) direction. The statement said that the responsibility for the nation's security cannot be usurped by any individual who may seek to set himself above the laws of the land or to override executive orders. It was in reply to Sen. McCarthy's assertion that government employees should feel free to give him secret information.

McCarthy reiterated Tuesday that he will not be bound by any Presidential secrecy orders in hunting down Communists, subversives or grafters.

Mr. Eisenhower emphasized that the administration's anti-Communist work had all been done in absolute accordance with due process of law.

Instead of commenting on the Army-McCarthy dispute, Mr. Eisenhower said, he is going to devote all his time to trying to get his legislative program enacted and to work problems.

He said that he can't conceive of anything more important to Americans.

He said that he is going to devote his time to positive action on his legislative program. He said that he will talk to the press, congressmen and the public at every opportunity in an effort to advance his program.

Late in the news conference, a reporter tried to get in a question relating to the Army-McCarthy dispute by asking Mr. Eisenhower if he thinks McCarthy is hurting the administration's legislative program in Congress.

Mr. Eisenhower stopped, looked hard at the reporter for a moment and snappily asked for the next question. Staff Talks Limited

In discussing Indochina, Mr. Eisenhower said by no means has he reached a decision to ask Congress for authority to intervene in that area.

Mr. Eisenhower said that staff talks starting here Thursday among high ranking military officials of the United States, Britain, France, Australia and New Zealand will be confined to military matters only. They will not go into the question of diplomatic policy on the Indochina conflict.

A reporter told Mr. Eisenhower that senators recently had said they expect that he soon may submit to Congress a resolution authorizing U. S. military intervention in Indochina.

Mr. Eisenhower replied that he had not seen the senatorial statements. However, he added, he could say that every possible line of action that might serve the interests of the United States is constantly being explored by military and state department staffs.

Russia Stops Atom Plan
Mr. Eisenhower told his news conference that the tenor of Russia's reply to his atom-for-peace plan he outlined in a speech before the United Nations General Assembly last Dec. 8, has been such as to close the door to any immediate accomplishment in that line.

In the Dec. 8 speech, the President suggested that the United States, Russia, and other atomic powers each contribute some of their atomic materials to a U. N.-supervised world pool to be used in development of atomic energy for peaceful purposes.

He suggested that cooperation in this limited effort might build up enough mutual confidence to enable the big powers to break their eight-year-old deadlock over control of atomic weapons.

Set Hearing On Insurance Rates
SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—The state insurance department today had set June 23 for a hearing on its citation asking 240 insurance companies to show cause why auto insurance rates shouldn't be reduced 7 to 10 per cent.

The new hearing date was announced after State Insurance Director Robert E. Barrett Tuesday rejected an insurance industry offer to reduce rates 3.2 per cent or $175,369 annually. The hearing was originally scheduled to be held Tuesday.

Barrett said department statistics show rates should be reduced 7 to 10 per cent, or between five and six million dollars.

The proposed 3.2 per cent reduction came from the National Automobile Underwriters Assn., which represents the 240 companies.

Simpson Rites Held at Equality
The funeral of Mrs. Etta Simpson, Equality, who died Monday at 5 p. m. in the Eldorado nursing home, was today at 2 p. m. at the Equality Methodist church. Rev. W. R. Warner officiated, and burial was in the Cottage Grove cemetery.

Promise Senate Action on Social Security Bill

House Approves Increase in Benefits By 355 to 8 Vote

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Eugene D. Millikin of the Senate Finance committee promised today to get prompt Senate action on a House-approved measure boosting benefits and increasing coverage of the federal old age insurance system.

The bill, passed by the House Tuesday by a roll call vote of 355-8, would hike benefits by amounts ranging from $5 to $23.50 per month. It would extend coverage to some 10,000,000 persons not now included in the Social Security system.

In this new group are farmers, dentists, lawyers, architects, accountants and most full-time farm and domestic workers. The only major exceptions to the general coverage would be physicians, firemen, policemen, federal civil service workers, and migratory or part-time farm laborers and domestic workers.

Measure Acceptable
Millikin said his finance committee will start hearings on the Social Security measure soon, perhaps even before the big tax reform bill has cleared the Senate. The Colorado Republican said he thinks the Social Security measure passed by the House was "generally acceptable," and indicated he believed it would be passed by the Senate with relatively little opposition.

Some 48,000,000 workers are covered by old age insurance now in an average work week. The new measure would boost this figure to about 58,000,000.

The present minimum benefit of $25 a month for a retired worker would be hiked to $30. The maximum would be increased from $85 to $108.50. The maximum for a family would be increased from $168.75 to $200 a month.

Social Security taxes would be paid on the first $4,200 of income, instead of on $3,600 as provided by present law. In effect, this would mean a tax boost of $12 a year for persons with incomes exceeding $4,200. The 2 per cent Social Security tax is paid by both employer and employee.

Rejection Move to End Hearings On Tax-Free Groups

By United Press
A special House committee, by a party line vote, today rejected a Democratic attempt to end hearings on tax-exempt foundations until all members are told what the group is investigating.

Rep. George Ploof (D-Iowa) led the unsuccessful fight to halt the hearings which he called "a very unsatisfactory use of time and a waste of the taxpayers' money."

His motion was voted down, 3-2. The committee, headed by Rep. B. Carroll Reece (R-Tenn.) has been appropriated $115,000 to find out whether such tax-free foundations as Rockefeller, Ford and Carnegie have helped promote subversive causes.

Other late developments: Subversion: Omar Ketchum, legislative spokesman for the Veterans of Foreign Wars, told a House Judiciary subcommittee it is "more important" to outlaw membership in the Communist Party than to outlaw the party itself. He made his comments in endorsing a bill by Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex.) which would do both.

Rules: Chairman Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) of a House Rules subcommittee introduced legislation to lay down ground rules to be followed by house committees on a voluntary basis. He said he decided against mandatory compliance but felt that "when everyone knows the rules, no one will be likely to flout them." They would control, among other things, issuance of subpoenas and assignment of employees to investigative activities.

Security Risks: A House appropriations subcommittee released testimony showing that the Department of Health, Education and Welfare on April 30 had fired or eliminated 238 security risks. The report said 114 of these had records indicating some form of subversive activities or associations. Thirty-three of the security risks were hired after the Eisenhower administration took office.

Saigon Rocked by Munitions Blast

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—A series of explosions ripped through one of France's biggest ammunition dumps in Indochina today and rocked Saigon throughout the morning.

The French announced that Communist regular troops were not responsible for the explosions but did not discount the possibility that Red saboteurs touched off the blasts.

No deaths or casualties were reported.

Hint New Peace Offensive By Communists

GENEVA (AP)—Communist sources hinted today that Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov's mystery trip to Moscow was connected with a new "peace" offensive both in Indochina and in the broader international field.

Communist bloc conference sources indicated that Molotov reviewed in Moscow "the international situation in the light of Soviet moves towards the relaxation of international tensions."

They also intimated that Sino-Russian relations were among the topics discussed by Molotov with Premier Georgi Malenkov and top military leaders.

Molotov returned from Moscow Tuesday and was to act as chairman of the secret nine-nation meeting on Indochina today.

Another Meeting
There were indications he would now place greater emphasis on the Kremlin's policy of "co-existence" of capitalism and Communism and to try for another East-West meeting later this year. Diplomatic observers said another such conference would help paralyze Western defense initiative.

It was considered significant that Molotov's first move after his arrival was to meet with Red China's Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai.

The two ministers conferred lengthily and Molotov's talks with Malenkov must have played a decisive part in the discussion.

Peace Offensive
Meanwhile the Soviet special envoy to China, A. Zhitov, left suddenly by plane for Moscow after a talk with Molotov. He was accompanied by Ivan Petrov, member of the Soviet delegation to the Far East conference.

This move strengthened belief in a new diplomatic peace offensive was in the making.

Diplomatic observers also speculated that Molotov has been finding it difficult to "control" Chou and to dash his enthusiasm for power politics, fanned by recent successes of Communism in Asia.

GFWC Proposes Outlaw of All Subversive Groups

DENVER (AP)—The world convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs wants the Communist Party and similar subversive groups outlawed in the United States.

Three thousand delegates representing the federation's 11 million members in 33 countries also agreed unanimously Tuesday that membership in, or participation in the "revolutionary activities of the Communist Party" should be made a criminal offense.

The convention decided that the Communist organization presents "a clear and present danger to the security of our country and to the existence of free American institutions."

An outlaw brand should be placed on "the Communist Party in the United States and other organizations with similar purposes," it said.

The GFWC also adopted resolutions for the "early establishment of a national academy of public affairs," elimination of inequities in copyright laws, inclusion of qualified women on the United States travel commission, and for women's clubs to "initiate and support programs which promote assumption of community and individual responsibility toward civil affairs."

Mrs. Theodore S. Chapman, Jerseyville, Ill., the GFWC first vice president, was nominated without opposition to succeed Mrs. Oscar A. Ahlgren, Whiting, Ind., as president.

Two Children Die in Abandoned Refrigerator

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—An abandoned refrigerator claimed the lives of two children Tuesday.

Larry Murphy, 3, and Paul Murphy, 4, his cousin, suffocated when they climbed into the refrigerator and closed the door behind them.

Scooter's Skid Hurting Yankees

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Every body here, it seems, is worried that the slow-starting Yankees might never really open up this year and the World Series will be piped in over television lines from Chicago or Cleveland.

They talk about a Yankee collapse in bars and offices and the amateur figure filberts drag out back records to provide evidence that the law of averages always catches up with things.

But the one place where worry seems at a minimum is the small office Casey Stengel occupies under the Yankee Stadium grandstand. He still sits there and holds court for writers who care to look at his two knotted-up legs.

Casey was pressed, on this occasion, for one of those big-picture slants on the way his club had started off the season. Instead of howling to the heavens and baying to the moon about the way his club was going, Casey seemed in a rather confident frame of mind.

"Well," he offered, "my guys are hitting the ball just as far as they did last year. Only they're hitting it higher in the air and the other fellows are catching it."

"The pitching has been excellent. Morgan (Tom), McDonald (Jim), Allie (Reynolds) and Ed Lopat, they've been throwin' real good."

"I think we'll be okay when the hitters begin to get movin'. We'll do all right then."

Stengel, to our mind, had done a rather neat job of side-stepping what, we think, will be the make-or-break spot as the New Yorkers attempt to take their sixth straight pennant.

That would be the old, down-the-middle situation. Every club which ever has taken a pennant has done it with good catching, good pitching, a strong second base combination and a fine center fielder.

In Yogi Berra, the Yankees have the catching. In Mickey Mantle they have, on paper, the center fielder—although he still is not half the player he is capable of being due to the bad knee.

This leaves us with the second base situation—namely, Phil Rizzuto. Stengel himself has criticized Rizzuto this year.

We still remember Marty Marion, a magnificent number six man himself, saying, a year or so back, "The shortstop is the key man on the Yankees. He's no kid any more. When he goes, that club is likely to go with him."

In short, Rizzuto, the gnome-like little guy who still looks as if he should be carrying a shoe shine box, might be on the way out. This season, we've seen four grounders skip by to his left, balls he used to eat up. Stengel himself arches his eyebrows and tells you, "Three, maybe four times this year, we got only the first man on a double play, with the hitter safe at first. Used to get those guys automatically. And they weren't left-handed batters either."

Rizzuto might wind up on the bench, with Jerry Coleman, whose fielding has held up, moved over to short. Gil McDougald, under this plan, would be at second base and young Andy Carey at third.

Would this hurt the Yankees? Mister, it sure would. Phil Rizzuto has played baseball with anybody that ever lived during his career at Yankee Stadium. All the pitching in the world couldn't replace him.

The Yankees, it appears, are in for some real scrambling this time out.

No Action Taken On Slot Machines Seized at Herrin

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—The FBI said today it is up to the Eastern Illinois District U. S. Attorney's office to decide on prosecution involving slot machine parts seized in Herrin Sunday.

U. S. Atty. Clifford Ramer could not be reached immediately at his East St. Louis office. His office reported, however, that Ramer had taken no action in the case yet. FBI agents Sunday seized 191 slot machine assemblies and 91 slot machine cabinets in a building at Herrin.

Golf Gab

Country Club
Happenings

... by J. R.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS were in order last weekend at the golf course... an estimated 200 golfers duffers, and rank beginners crowded the links between Saturday morning and Monday night. Except for isolated instances, play proceeded fairly rapidly, and several amusing incidents arose during play.

A TREMENDOUS DRIVE by Bob Davenport put his ball on the green at the first hole yesterday, where his wife, Pat, was busy putting with her foursome. Not knowing who drove the ball, Pat was wondering who was aiming in her direction... at the same time, Bob was wondering why his frau didn't casually edge the ball into the hole. Happily, the argument was brief.

THIS WEEK'S gold-plated miniature water wings go to Roger Johnson, who drove quickly and neatly into the lake yesterday. While Rog was vociferously declaiming the dubious ancestry and doubtful pedigree of the submerged pellet, a sudden gust of wind lifted his cap off his head and into the drink. Cap and ball were both reclaimed by diligent effort.

SADDEST STORY of the month comes from Jim Gwaltney, mighty long-ball smiter. James put together a 72 one day last week, and still had to cough up a few pennies to Ira Stille, who fashioned a scintillating 64! Sympathy... Sympathy.

GREAT THINGS are forthcoming from the ingenious brains of the social committee. Next item on the agenda after the highly successful opening day affair is a Ladies' Day doin's June 9. There will be luncheon for all the gals at 1:15, followed by bridge, canasta, or golf, according to individual desires. It promises to be a fine sort of stag-ette affair, and the committee hopes for a big turnout. Tickets for the Ladies Day affair go on sale tomorrow at the club room.

A couples party is planned for mid-June. The committee will announce more about this later.

OUR SOCIAL COMMITTEE deserves a big pat on the back for the fine start on this season's entertainment. Here are our committee members: Bob and Margaret Rushing, chairman; Howard and Gini Coyle, Pat and Betty Sullivan, and Ronnie and Joanne Mitchell. They have the most thankless job of the whole shebang, and deserve plenty of recognition for it.

THIS IS THE FIRST of what we hope will be a weekly effort on golf doins'. Prompt reporting of any worthwhile incidents around and about the club will be appreciated. Just tell J. R. about it. See you next week.

Make New Effort To Resume Play in Baseball Tourney

By United Press

Four Illinois prep baseball teams make another attempt today at playing their first-round games in the 1954 state tournament.

Bellevue meets Peoria Manual at Lanhier Park, Springfield, and New Trier of Winnetka and Thornton Fractional of Calumet City take the diamond at University of Chicago field.

Rain and wet grounds forced postponement of the games at Peoria last week and again Tuesday. The games will be rescheduled again for Thursday should further postponements be necessary today.

Litchfield and Chicago Bowen won the two first-round games which were completed last week. Semifinals and the title game now are slated to be played at Peoria Friday.

RECEIVES PROMOTION WHILE SERVING ON LST

Richard Morgan "Dick" Frederick, stationed aboard the LST 1063 in Korean waters, has been promoted to Electricians Mate 2nd Class, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Jean Frederick, from the captain of his ship. In commenting on Frederick's service, the ship commander states "he has proven to be a credit to the Naval service and to his ship." Frederick attended an electricians school in San Diego and graduated from the school with highest honors.

He has been in service more than three years and most of the time has been in overseas duty. He is due to return to the States in mid-July.

EX-PRESIDENT BOOSTS COAL

A former U. S. president, Herbert Hoover, has this to say about coal: "There is no engineer who believes this nation can do without huge supplies of coal. Despite the encouragement of water power, oil gas and possible atomic power, the nation will need increasing coal production. There is in sight no ample substitute for much of our steam, a large part of household coal, supplies for metallurgical use, production of chemical materials, and other use."

THE OLD COLLEGE TRY—Despair fills the face of Richard D. Munk as he barely misses the ball going into his goal before a soccer match in Stuttgart. EPSOM, England (UP)—Never Say Die, owned by Robert S. Clark of Upperville, Va., won the 175th Epsom Derby today before a huge crowd that included Queen Elizabeth and Sir Winston Churchill.

An Irish Hospital sweepstakes is based on the result of the mile-and-a-half race.

Arabian Night beat out Darius for second place in a photo finish. Twenty-two three-year-olds contested the race.

Never Say Die finished two lengths in front of Arabian Night. He was ridden by Lester Piggott.

The winner, the fifth American-owned horse to win the classic, started at 33-1. Arabian Night also

Russ Meyer Hurls Dodgers To 2-0 Victory Over Braves; Tigers Win Behind Branca

By CARL LUNDQUIST

United Press Sports Writer
Russ Meyer, the Christmas tree merchant from Peru, Ill., gave the Dodgers another handsome payment today for "rescuing" him more than a year ago from the Braves.

For about an hour in the spring of 1953, Meyer belonged to the Braves when the Phillies traded him for Earl Torgeson, but he went on in a second deal to the Dodgers the same afternoon. And Meyer, who never was particularly chummy with Braves' Manager Charley Grimm when they were both with the Cubs, never ceased to be grateful.

"I'll wreck those guys every time I get a chance," he said then, and he has done pretty well with his vow.

Classic Six-Hitter

Tuesday night he pitched a classic six-hit 2-0 victory, the fourth in a row for the Dodgers, and he also contributed to the scoring of both runs with neatly placed sacrifice bunts against Milwaukee hurler Bob Buhl.

Meyer got into a businesslike frame of mind when he walked into the Milwaukee park and noticed they had planted some huge evergreens as a background for the hitters in the outfield.

"Man, look at those big babies," he exclaimed. "I'd get about 35 bucks apiece for them back home around Christmas time."

Riffin' Russ, turning in his victory over the Braves, wasn't even concerned about detectives who tried to spot a customer in the stands shining a light into his eyes.

"Maybe they were just aiming to decorate those trees and their direction was a little off," he said.

Four Percentage Points
Meyer, who shares staff leadership in leading Milwaukee with Billy Loes, struck out three and walked five but bore down brilliantly and left 10 Milwaukee players on base. The victory put Brooklyn within four percentage points of the first place Braves.

Billy Cox led off both Brooklyn rallies with a walk in the third and a single in the fifth. On each occasion Meyer sacrificed. Peeewe Reese singled in the first run and Junior Gilliam delivered the other, also with a single.

In the American league, ex-Dodger Ralph Branca won his third game without a loss for Detroit, beating Baltimore, 4-3, while the Athletics pounded out 23 hits for a 16-6 victory over Boston and the Yankees defeated the Senators 9-3.

Rained Out

St. Louis at Chicago and New York at Pittsburgh were rained out and there were no other games.

Vukovich Receives $79,934 Check For '500' Victory

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—Winner Bill Vukovich today pocketed nearly $80,000 as his personal share of the largest Speedway purse in history, $269,375, for his record run in the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race.

Vukovich was handed a check for $74,934 by the paymaster at Tuesday night's victory dinner, but 60 per cent of it went to the owner of the car and his pit crew.

The total fell short of his all-time high of nearly $89,500 he won last year because of the difference in lap prize money.

Last year, the 35-year-old Fresno, Calif., "Iron Man" led for 195 of the 200-lap grind, but he was ahead for only 91 laps in Monday's classic. The lead changed hands 12 times and six pilots shared in the $30,000 lap fund.

Jimmy Bryan, Phoenix, Ariz., who finished second a lap behind Vukovich, earned $35,884, and third place Jack McGrath, Inglewood, Calif., received $26,900.

All of the 33 starters shared in the jackpot which totaled $22,975 more than last year.

scheduled in either league.
Branca pitched steady eight-hit ball until he tired in the eighth and Dick Marlowe saved his triumph with a neat relief trick. Bill Tuttle's triple and Frank House's sacrifice fly gave Detroit a 1-0 lead and when Vernon Stephens tied it with a homer in the fourth, Detroit came back with four hits good for three runs. Branca chipped in a single in the fifth inning rally and Frank Bolling drove in two runs with a single.

The Athletics, piling up their biggest hit production of the season, cashed in on Gus Zernial's two homers and six runs batted in while rookie Spook Jacobs had two doubles and two singles for four RBIs and Manager Eddie Jost had a homer and two singles. Even winning pitcher Bob Trice delivered a homer.

Bob Grim pitched a six-hitter for the Yankees for his fifth victory while Hank Bauer batted in four runs with a homer and single.

Tuesday's Star: Russ Meyer, who pitched the Dodgers to a six-hit, 2-0 victory over the Braves and contributed two sacrifice bunts and a single at bat.
